Pastor Nominating Committee Update

The PNC is honored to serve the congregation in the search for our new Senior Pastor. The Ministry Discernment Profile (MDP) created by the team, which provides an overview of our church and description of the CPC Senior Pastor position, was approved by the Presbytery Commission on Ministry in early December. Since that time, the PNC team has reviewed 100 applications and started conducting phone interviews with potential candidates. The team is grateful for the ongoing support of our Presbytery representative, Greg Horn, who is a pastor in Upper Montclair. The team has set up a confidential e-mail address, centralpnc24@gmail.com, that members can give to pastors they know who might be interested in the position. Thank you for your continued support and prayers.

and Jess Mills,
PNC Co-Chairs

Eport Presbyterian Center

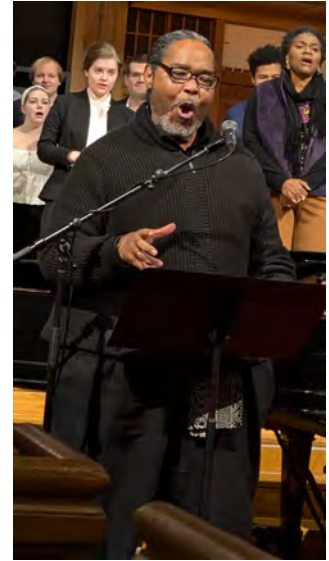

Central Church has been in partnership with the Elizabethport Presbyterian Center for more than 50 years, bringing assistance of all kinds to the underserved community.

Our longest continuously running mission is our Eport Tutoring program, was begun in 1969 and continues to this day every Tuesday evening during the school year. Tutoring is run by Sarah Engle and Ellen Burchenal, with direction from Pastor Deborah Huggins. Tutoring has recently been expanded to include students in need from Summit.

On Saturday, February 8, as part of the Central Concert Series, Central hosted a benefit concert for the Presbyterian Center, featuring Gospel tenor William Heard, the Princeton Seminary Chapel Choir, and members of Central's Motet Choir. A free will offering was collected for the Center and its scholarship program.

During the concert, our beloved member Jim Northrop, who passed during the pandemic, was honored for his extensive work with the Eport Center and tutoring program.

Chancel Flowers

The 2025 Flower Calendar is up outside the Sanctuary near the ramp from the glass hallway. Be sure to reserve your choice of dates to recognize a special occasion or to memorialize or honor someone. There are many dates available in upcoming months to dedicate flowers, including March 2, 9, & 30. Email Evelyn at EThiel@centralpres.org with questions.

Spiritual Practices for Lent by Pam Robertson

During the pandemic I had a conversation with Rev. Holly Whitcomb, author of the book The Seven Spiritual Gifts of Waiting. The pandemic was a forced time of waiting we all had to endure. Holly says, waiting presents an enormous challenge, we are impatient, "fix-it" kinds of people -- and not all situations can be fixed. The good news is that waiting can open the door to explore the hidden treasures of waiting—whether it's ordinary waiting in traffic or crucial waiting for news. If we are going to continue to live, we are going to continue to wait!

Seven Spiritual Gifts of Waiting is an excellent resource during times of waiting within the church year, especially during Lent. The book includes spiritual exercises and reflection questions for personal or group use as well as a retreat design.

God is in the wait,

- Pam Robertson,
Parish Associate for Spiritual Formation

Seven Spiritual Gifts of Waiting by Holly Whitcomb

“The Journey itself is indeed our Home. And our journey will always include waiting. If we are going to continue to live, we are going to continue to wait. The good news is that the discipline of waiting offers us Seven Spiritual Gifts. Each and every stage of our lives involves some form of waiting. If we consciously allow waiting to be our teacher, we can accommodate waiting more peacefully.

“There may be no more provoking experience than being told, “Wait.” It stops any action we might take. We may feel powerless, unprotected. Someone else holds all the cards. In the intervening moments—or days or weeks or years—waiting beckons us to come to the well of humility, to drink deeply. Those clarifying waters give us a chance to see ourselves clearly; to see both our flaws and our gifts, to accept both our failings and our goodness. Even the waiting itself becomes a lens through which we can assess ourselves honestly.

The First Gift of Waiting: Patience

Patience means trusting there is no quick fix. Patience invites us to trust the Fullness of God's time. In God's time, we are often waiting for the bigger picture, but must be content with each small piece along the way. Patience opens us to Active Waiting. Patience is an extremely difficult discipline precisely because it counteracts our unreflective impulse to flee or fight. Patience gives us time to be available to others. Waiting teaches us to live life in small increments.

The Second Gift of Waiting: Loss of Control

Loss of Control teaches us to depend on one another. Loss of Control allows us to surrender to grief. Loss of Control teaches us resilience. Waiting offers us a chance to let go. What can waiting teach us about resilience? *When something unbearable happens, we are tempted to move on quickly.

The Third Gift of Waiting: Living in the Present

Living in the present calls us to “be here now.” Living in the present invites us to relinquish worry. Living in the present allows us to say, “It is enough.” Living in the present teaches us to be faithful in small things. *Waiting teaches us to dwell fully where we are. When the Buddha was asked, “Sir, what do you and your monks practice?” he replied, “We sit, we walk, and we eat.” The questioner continued, “But sir, everyone sits, walks, and eats,” and the Buddha told him, “When we sit, we know we are sitting. When we walk, we know we are walking. When we eat, we know we are eating.” - Thich Nhat Hanh, in “Living Buddha, Living Christ”. *It comes back to living in the present—an invitation to sit down, take a deep breath, and ask, “What is in front of my face this very minute that summons me to faithfulness.”

The Fourth Gift of Waiting: Compassion

Compassion reminds us that we are not alone. Compassion teaches us how to receive. Compassion allows us to be seen for who we really are. Compassion helps us gather strength from others. Compassion offers us hope. *Waiting offers us many opportunities for compassion—both to give and to receive.

The Fifth Gift of Waiting: Gratitude

Gratitude turns obstacles into opportunity. Gratitude moves us beyond entitlement. Gratitude opens our eyes to the blessings of small things. *Waiting teaches us to value the small things. What are some of the ways we can be grateful in our present circumstances? “The feeling of gratitude is a shy bird. Chasing it does no good. Genuine gratitude can never be forced. Trying hard to feel gratitude is like trying hard to fall asleep or fall in love. The harder you try to be grateful, the more elusive the experience becomes. It must come to you, on its own schedule and on its own terms. You practice gratitude by carefully building a home in your heart to accommodate it. The bird does not always come, but if you make a home for it, it comes often enough.” – Timothy Miller, How to Want What You Have

The Sixth Gift of Waiting: Humility

Humility leads us to the grace of God. Humility leads us to love rather than achievement. Humility leads us to honor others. Humility leads us to live without judgment. Humility leads us to an honest assessment. DOES ENTITLEMENT INTERFERE WITH GRATITUDE? *Waiting is a spiritual opening to recognize our powerlessness—and God’s grace. How can waiting teach us about humility?

The Seventh Gift of Waiting: Trust in God

Trust in God is an invitation to let go of fear. Trust in God is an invitation to trust in love. Trust in God is an invitation to pray. *Waiting teaches us to live in trust. How can I use waiting to practice trusting in God’s love?” “Waiting. We cannot escape it. We will be waiting all our our lives for one thing or another. There are little waits, big waits, gratifying waits and excruciating waits—and we can learn from all of them.” Waiting is a generous teacher and offers generous gifts—All Seven! And God’s love with always find us.

Preaching Schedule

During this time of transition since Interim Pastor Jan Ammon has retired and the PNC continues its search for our next Senior Pastor, a series of guest preachers will fill our pulpit, with Pastor Deborah Huggins and Parish Associate Pam Robertson contributing, as well.

March 2 will have Pam Robertson leading morning worship, with Pastor Deborah leading WAVE at 5:00 p.m..

March 9 brings us Rev. Gregory Davis, who serves as the Youth Pastor at Fountain Baptist Church in Summit, NJ. He provides leadership, partnership, strategy, and oversight to the young people, teens, families and faithful volunteers at the church. Rev. Davis is extremely passionate about equipping and empowering the generations to come to fulfill their God given purpose while ensuring they have some fun in the process.

Rev. Davis is a graduate of Syracuse University with a degree in Marketing. He gained important business experience working in sales at several Fortune 500 companies. But it was the unexpected death of his father that challenged him to seriously pursue God's will for his life. An opportunity to create, develop, and lead an after-school enrichment program unveiled a passion to work with and inspire young people. And God's persistence led to a Master of Divinity degree from Drew University Theological School where he graduated Magna Cum Laude. Rev. Davis counts it a blessing and a joy to be married to his wife, Amber.

March 16 will have Pastor Deborah Huggins leading both the morning service, and WAVE at 5:00 p.m.

March 23 brings Rev. Mike Pulsifer, who has served for 56 years as a Presbyterian minister in churches in El Reno, Oklahoma; Indianola, Iowa; Santa Ana, California; Ridgewood, New Jersey; and Ardmore, Pennsylvania. He is newly retired from serving Arch Street Presbyterian Church in Center City Philadelphia.

Mike was born and reared in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in history and philosophy from Westminster College in Fulton, Missouri; his Masters of Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary; and completed a year of postgraduate work at New College, University of Edinburgh. He and his wife, Marion, whom he has known since the seventh grade, have two sons and five grandchildren who all now live in the Philadelphia area.

March 30 will have Rev. Dr. Thomas Tewell at our pulpit.

Tom Tewell has loved being pastor of four wonderful congregations during his forty-five years in pastoral ministry, including Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York City, that he served on September 11, 2001, and the 5,000-member Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church in Houston, Texas. In this current chapter of life, he thoroughly enjoys being a pastor to pastors, a preacher in residence at the San Marino Community Church in suburban Los Angeles, and, most of all, a husband, dad, and granddad to seven grandchildren between the ages of six and twenty-five!

A graduate of Princeton Seminary, where he served as a Trustee for 15 years, Tom received a Doctor of Ministry degree from Drew Theological School and has been awarded two honorary doctorates.

While at Princeton, Tom served for two years as a Hunt Scholar here at Central Presbyterian in Summit, where he worked with the youth group. Tom continues to mentor 40 young preachers across America through the Zick Preacher Scholar Program that he founded ten years ago that helps preachers improve their preaching.

An entrepreneur at heart, Tom is also the Founder of Macedonian Ministry, a leadership development ministry that he started in 2008. Macedonian Ministry just enrolled their 1,400th pastor and congregation representing 25 different Christian denominations. Tom and his wife Suzanne have been married for over 50 years and live in Claremont, California, close to their three youngest grandchildren, under the age of ten.

April 6, which is Confirmation Sunday, will be led by Pastor Deborah Huggins in the morning, with Pam Robertson leading WAVE in the evening.

April 13, Palm Sunday, brings Rev. Dr. Riley

Jensen back to Central.

This guest preacher is no stranger to Central, having served as our Senior Pastor from 1986 -1999. In addition to Central, he has served churches in Seattle and Grand Rapids, MI. Upon retirement in 2007, he led conferences for Presbyterian Credo, a health and wellness program for Presbyterian Ministers, for eleven years. For two years during COVID, he served as the Minister of Preaching at Park Congregational church in Grand Rapids. He loves returning to New Jersey, not only to visit Central, but also to see daughter, Regan (Steve) Michaels, son Randy (Frances), and grandchildren, Frannie and Gigi Michaels, and Dylan Kidd.

April 20, Easter Sunday, will also feature Rev. Dr. Riley Jensen at our pulpit.

Meet Adam Gilbert

Central's Youth and Contemporary Music Coordinator, Adam Gilbert, organizes and leads all music in the WAVE service and oversees any youth music participation from middle school to high school in the Church, as well as leading some of our contemporary music at the 10:00 traditional service.

Adam, a native of Sparta, NJ, was the music director at the Vernon United Methodist Church for 9 years before coming to Central. He studied music composition at the University of Miami and has a minor in music business.

"I started teaching voice, piano and songwriting lessons right after college as well as pursuing my solo career as a singer songwriter/producer. I've released three albums, music videos and a number of singles of my own music. One live music video was filmed in the Church sanctuary! I've also directed musicals, mixed, arranged and produced music for singer songwriters and film scores," Adam explains.

Adam came to Central when he was teaching private voice lessons in Summit and Claire Davis reached out because Central was looking to hire a person for contemporary worship eleven years ago.

Leading WAVE worship and singing are Adam's favorite parts of his job. "Leading music and pairing that with the love of God is such an honor to do."

Adam is married to Becky, who used to work at Booze Allen as a public affairs and event planner for the army General on Base at Picattiny Arsenal. They have 2 daughters, Lily, two, and Genevieve, four months.

Outside of Central, Adam owns and manages Streamline Car Wash in Rockaway with a friend. "Last year we washed 130,000 cars and went viral for our Haunted car wash events we put on in October with live actors, animatronics and special events. It got so popular that one night there were estimated 1,000 cars in line and the police made us shut down since the 2 lines went into 2 neighboring towns and cause a public safety issue."

Adam also started an Airbnb business in Winter Park Colorado, and started Run Against ALS with a few friends that is a non profit to support people with ALS and related research. He is currently the treasurer for the organization.

When asked about his future goals, Adam replied, "At some point I'll be writing more music but things are little hectic now with the new born, spending quality time with the family and keeping up with my professional career. "

A Thank You Letter from Community FoodBank of NJ

We're grateful for both the generous contribution and pledge of continued support, continuing our impactful partnership. Central Presbyterian's support this month [January] helps to mark a monumental milestone of 50 years for CFBNJ working with partners like you. It's a time to reflect with pride on a journey that began in 1975 when our late founder, Kathleen DiChiara, started distributing food from her station wagon in Newark, and strengthens our resolve to continue the work ahead.

As CFBNJ evolves to meet the complex challenges of food insecurity, we know that we cannot do this work alone. Your partnership allows us to collaborate across all sectors of society, making strides toward long-term solutions. As we celebrate our 50th anniversary, Central Presbyterian's contribution and pledge of support will continue to help us drive systemic change in New Jersey. Together, we are building a more food secure future for the 1 in 9 New Jerseyans facing hunger.

Thank you once again to you, the board and the entire Central Presbyterian Church community for standing with us in this critical work.

Your commitment and engagement is truly making a difference.

We look forward to seeing you again next week to celebrate the Workforce Development graduates.

Membership & Fellowship Team News

The Membership/Fellowship Team is focused on identifying opportunities for the Congregation to gather and engage with each other, and we are always in need of people to help with help these events. Make sure to follow Friday Emails to keep abreast of all events, special celebrations and opportunities to volunteer!

The organizing Team joins Jeff Lowman and Mibs Wagner monthly on the first Wednesday of the month to plan ways to increase Fellowship and Membership. Dedicated members include Lyle Brehm, Cindy Gaylord, Chris May, Barbara Speni, Dave Bomgaars, Betty Torell, Michael Moore and Susan Peterson. The Team discusses not only how to draw our members together, but also how to create interest in joining our Congregation. YOUR ideas and participation are WELCOME! The glistening lights (thanks to Peter Richardson) for the Christmas Cocktail Party, Dec. 6th, enhanced our holiday gatherings into the new year. Take Tens provided by Susan Peterson and helpers kept members mingling through January! News of Pastor Jan's leaving meant planning for her sendoff. The Team worked with the Personnel Team to plan the farewell Take Ten for February 9th. Committee members greeted all, providing name tags and ensured memories were captured in the Guest Book for Jan. A large sheet-cake decorated with a picture of the church, the delectable buffet provided by Susan P. and her volunteers, as well as tables decorated with Jan's favorite yellow flowers spoke to our appreciation and fond wishes for Pastor Jan.

A "newer" member survey was presented to Session for discussion at the February meeting. The Team's goal is to reach more of the members who joined during the past 4+ years to learn of their hopes for Membership as well as how they might participate. The questionnaire will be sent via e-mail and followed up with printed version attached to a "Gathering Invitation" for an event planned in the spring. The committee is considering an expanded survey to go out to the entire Congregation in the future. We feel it is important to engage members even more during this time of transition.

Tracking of our Pew Cards will be even more essential in the months ahead! Thanks to Earle Eaton's weekly refurbishing and our Pastor's weekly announcements from the Pulpit, the program continues. We need weekly volunteers, when it's convenient for you, to assist in setting up and clean up for Take Ten and other celebrations. Please join in, and thanks to all who have helped in the past!

Children and Youth

Central Church- C.C. If you look at our Church's logo, you will see that the two C's that make up our name are linked together in such a way that they link- forming a simple fish symbol. The fish has been a symbol of the church since early Christianity. Jesus told us to be "fisher's of people" making disciples from all nations- the letters of the word fish in Greek closely map to the letters for Jesus, and Christians in hiding have used the symbols for millennia to connect with one another.

For the children of the church, we have made the fish a little easier to see- and we have named the fish "Goldie." Goldie reminds us not only to be a disciple, to help people to become disciples through our kindness, but also to be a disciple- loving God, and loving others- the Golden rule!

For Lent, all of the kids will be using Fish Banks to support One Great Hour of Sharing- and we are inviting everyone to celebrate this special collection of this church to support Presbyterians Disaster Assistance, Presbyterian Hunger Assistance, and Self-Development of People. You can find out more here: <https://pcusa.org/special-offerings/one-great-hour-sharing>

Goldie Scavenger Hunt

Time Frame: Lent (March 5-April 20)

Where: Central Church- Look in lots of different spots

What: Goldie Photo Scavenger Hunt - we are inviting people to find Goldie in as many places as possible.

When you find it, snap a photo, and post it to social media using #CPCGoldie. Everyone who posts will receive an awesome goldfish prize. The person who finds Goldie in the most different locations wins our grand prize of a stuffed fish (to take home, or to leave in the nursery).

Lent with Children

Butterflies are a powerful teacher to help us understand the resurrection. With the children, we will be raising butterflies. All during Lent, Pastor Deborah's Butterflies will be meeting with different classes in the school, and in the Sunday school helping our children to look for signs of the resurrection in their everyday lives. Everyone in the congregation is invited to follow their journey from caterpillar to butterfly in the glass hallway. If you would like butterflies at home, please reach out to Pastor Deborah- she can order you a kit to align with our kits at school and church.

All during Lent, our Prayer Room will be open again this year. We will have different spiritual practices available each week, both in the Friday email, and in the prayer room. Spiritual practices are amazing in part because they appeal to us across our lifespan. We encourage you to try them out with your family!

Youth Deacons

Our Youth Deacons bring so much to the church- ushering, bringing plants and flowers to our members at home, and leading with children. We are so pleased that Lisa Parkes, Jen Gawronski, and Amanda Grainger and many of our teens have formed a Youth Deacons team to share their hearts of service even more. Youth are planning monthly tech support, and some parent's nights upcoming this Spring. Thank you to all of our Youth who serve so faithfully as deacons in our church.

Eport Tutoring

Our amazing Eport Tutors and their students packed over 600 lunches for Bridges this week as part of their service learning curriculum at Eport tutoring. Together, kids and tutors are learning that they can contribute to the lives of others, and that they have gifts and energy to share. We are so grateful to all of our tutors, to Sarah Engle and Ellen Buchenal, and to our entire Eport staff for making this amazing program happen.

Mission Trip Fundraising

Would Lent be complete without pancakes? At Central, we can't pass up a chance to eat, share fellowship, and of course pancakes with REAL maple syrup! Come for the congregational meeting on 3/9, and stay for the pancakes. All proceeds will go to support this summer's mission trip!

CPC Weekday Nursery School and Kindergarten

Weekday Nursery School & Kindergarten is very excited to announce a playground update will be completed this summer and ready for all the children to enjoy in the fall of 2025!

The playground canopy over the sandbox will be replaced and a ground cover resurfacing will be installed. The ground covering will be replaced with a poured rubber surface to improve the safety around the climbing apparatus and allow for a clear exit from classrooms.

The school accepted a very generous $10,000 donation towards this project from the Parent Organization. The CPC community participation in fall sales and events to raise funds for this project. We extend our deepest appreciation to our CPC community!

We still have a long way to go to reach the goal of $60,000. There are several more opportunities to fund this project. The WNSK Advisory Board and Parent Organization have further events, sales and are accepting tax-exempt contributions. We are looking into ways of commemorating individual donations in the amounts exceeding $250 in a prominent and permanent space near the playground.

The children will have the very generous CPC WNSK community to thank for the beautiful, safe outdoor space to enjoy everyday for many years to come.
